

Dining Fact Sheet

Overview

Red Rock Casino, Resort and Spa offers guests a myriad of options when it comes to dining, from authentic Italian to dry-aged Prime steaks to a gourmet buffet. The collection of nine restaurants and numerous bars and lounges offer excellent service, attention to detail and quality food for a great value. Whether looking for a quick snack or an elegant dining experience, visitors to Red Rock Casino, Resort and Spa are sure to find exactly what they need to please their palate.

Joining the dining line up in June 2010 will be the extremely popular Yard House opening up their second location in Las Vegas. Yard House features American fusion fare and one of the world's largest selections of drafts (an impressive 130 beers will be on tap).

Restaurants

T-bones Chophouse and Lounge is an upscale steakhouse, serving oversized dry- and wet-aged prime steaks, signature bone-in meats and fresh fish flown in daily. An extensive wine loft features more than 7,500 bottles. Cocktails can be enjoyed at the piano bar, on the outdoor patio or around the fire pit, overlooking the tranquil sandbar pool backyard area. Full bottle service also is offered on the patio. The interior dining room is furnished in rich red and brown tones with a cozy, clubby feel, complete with a suspended fireplace. T-bones is open for dinner from 5 to 10 p.m., Sunday through Thursday, and 5 p.m. to 11 p.m., Friday and Saturday, with extended patio service hours.

Terra Rossa Italian Restaurant offers authentic Italian foods such as homemade pastas, wood-fired pizzas, fresh fish and an extensive antipasto table. The dedicated wine room hosts an impressive collection of 1,500 bottles of premiere Italian and California wines. The restaurant's intimate setting evokes the feeling of a rustic Tuscan villa and overlooks the outdoor water feature. Terra Rossa offers indoor and patio seating, as well as private dining rooms for special occasions. Terra Rossa is open for lunch and dinner from Noon to 10 p.m. with extended hours on the weekend.

Hachi offers modern Japanese and sushi cuisine infused with a variety of cultural influences from around the world. The menu was designed by Executive Chef Linda Rodriguez, the first woman to train under acclaimed Chef Nobu Matsuhisa, and features fresh fish flown in daily from Japan, more than 30 varieties of sake, and a variety of Hachi rolls, tempura, kushiyaki, nigiri and sashimi. The upscale restaurant offers a modern atmosphere with a casual twist and seats up to 220 people in the sushi bar and three private tatami rooms with traditional ground-level seating, as well as a sunken floor for legs to rest comfortably below the table. Its design was inspired from the original museum-quality pop art "Jellyfish Eyes" by contemporary artist Takashi Murakami, which is installed on one of the dining room walls. Other design highlights include a soaring 21-foot tall sake tower featuring more than 130 unique sake bottles, a Flying Dragon fixture with more than 2,500 handcrafted glass and resin cherry blossoms suspended from the dining room ceiling, and a seven-ton granite stone art piece table located near the bar area. Chef Rodriguez also hosts sushi rolling classes for guests once a month. Hachi is open for dinner nightly from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

LBS: A Burger Joint – Rock 'n' roll casual, LBS serves up gourmet burgers, without gourmet attitude. With its all-natural, gourmet burgers and a beer selection of more than 40 microbrew blends, LBS is a modern take on the classic American burger joint. With organic ingredients, original recipes and unparalleled guest service, LBS creates the best burger experience in Las Vegas. Using only hormone-free Hereford beef and organic turkey, house-made sauces, farm fresh, all-natural vegetables, and hand crafted buns, LBS is committed to culinary excellence. With its rugged brick, wood and leather accents, and brushed steel details, the interior of the restaurant creates a retro-cool vibe of the quintessential American roadhouse. The restaurant features a 40' bar, a hand-blown glass steer head and Old Glory made up of more than 3,500 metal license plates. Open daily for lunch and dinner from 11a.m. -10p.m. and open until 11 p.m. on weekends. For more information, visit www.lbsburger.com.

Cabo Cantina features authentic Mexican Baja foods, salsas and margaritas in a casual and fun setting. Prepared by Chef Mario Valencia, more than 130 exciting menu options are available to diners at the cantina. A large bar features more than 40 varieties of tequila, specialty drinks, sangria, margaritas and mojitos by the pitcher, a bar menu and slots for those looking for a little entertainment with their meal. An open kitchen overlooks the vivid colors and traditional Mexican tile work that fill the ultra-modern space, which includes an enclosed patio. Hand-sewn fabrics and rich brown woods also are featured in the restaurant. Cabo Cantina is open for dinner from 4 to 9 p.m., Sunday through Thursday, and 4 to 10 p.m., Friday and Saturday. The bar remains open until 10 p.m. on weekdays and midnight on weekends.

The Bagel Cafe is an authentic New York-style deli that has been voted "Best Of" by the Las Vegas Review Journal 12 years in a row (1997-2008). It's best known for its classics such as large homemade bagels, overstuffed half pound sandwiches such as corned beef and slow roasted brisket, Matzoh ball soup, knishes, salads and pizzas as well as a full breakfast menu. The Bagel Cafe also offers its popular carry-out deli and dessert counter service that includes staples such as hand sliced Nova lox, smoked whitefish, bagels, rye and challah breads and fresh baked cakes, pies and cookies. Its arrival at Red Rock marks the deli's third location in town. The Bagel Cafe is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday through Thursday: 8 am - 10pm; Friday & Saturday: 7 am – Midnight and Sunday 7am – 10 pm

Grand Café is a dramatic departure from a traditional coffee shop. This 24-hour casual American bistro serves a variety of fun appetizers, burgers, pizzas, salads and entrées, as well as all-day breakfast. In addition, the café features a coffee and dessert bar. Fresh-baked pastries and artisan breads also are available for dining in or to carry out.

Feast Buffet a favorite among guests, with freshly prepared food offerings in a live-action cooking environment with flavors from around the world, including Japanese, Chinese, Mexican, BBQ, American and Italian specialties; an extensive soup and salad bar; and a dessert selection, that includes homemade gelato and ice creams. Tastefully decorated with stonework, Venetian plaster and water features, the buffet can seat up to 600 people and encourages guests to relax in a comfortable, residential-like setting. Breakfast is served 8 a.m. to 11 a.m., lunch from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., and dinner from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. on weekdays. In addition, brunch is served from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekends.

Food Court provides eight additional offerings from well-recognized outlets, including Fatburger, Panda Express, Capriotti's, Villa Pizza, Starbucks, Tropical Smoothie Café, Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream and Rubio's Mexican Grill.

Sandbar Poolside Café features a variety of fun foods and cocktails, including appetizers, burgers, sandwiches and tossed salads for pool-goers to enjoy. Complimentary refreshers, such as popsicles, frozen grapes and misters, will be passed poolside.

In-room Dining

Guests who enjoy dining in the privacy of their rooms can take advantage of the in-room dining services, offered 24 hours a day. Friendly team members will help fulfill any craving, from breakfast favorites (served all day) to aged prime meats to special request items that do not appear on the menu.